Chris Van Allsburg is my favorite children's author/illustrator and "The Stranger" is one of his best. I own at least one copy of each of his books. This one was purchased for a gift but the moment I opened it and saw the illustrations I knew something was not right. The illustrations were not as vivid as those in older editions.

The Stranger by Chris Van Allsburg is a story about a farmer who accidentally hit a man with his car. The farmer took the man home to his house and gave him a standard check up. The farmer's daughter saw the man outside the next morning playing with rabbits and noticed it was odd that the rabbits did not run away when the man approached him; she had noticed he had a way with animals.
