The Lion King proved to be one of Elton John 's most successful projects -- which is quite an achievement for one of the most successful rockers in history. Given its level of popularity, it's only logical that John would reteam with his Lion collaborator Tim Rice. Perhaps to some it was surprising that they adapted Verdi 's Aida as their next project, but it made sense -- Rice 's background was in showtunes and John 's songs tended to sound like showtunes.

Tim Rice's lyrics maybe simple yet it relayed the story very well and Elton's music is simply delightful. Adam Pascal(as Radames), Heather Headley(as Aida), and Sherie Rene Scott's(as Amneris) voices blends so well, listening to them is pure magic! they provided so much soul and emotion in every song they sang, its really amazing.
