A Is For Activist by Innosanto Nagara | Waterstones

A is for Activist is the most recent addition to the field of radical children's literature, but it is by no means the first revolutionary children's book. In fact, there is a long history of oppositional children's storytelling, from socialist primers in the 1910s to the anti-authoritarian and contrarian sensibilities of stories from authors such as Dr. Seuss in the 1960s and 1970s.
