An Echo in the Darkness by Francine Rivers. Once again it is beautifully written and evokes many emotions from the characters personal struggles. However, the ending was for me, a little contrived and did not seem to enthrall me as the first book did. Having said that though, I am still looking forward to reading the last book in the series.

An Echo in the Darkness • Francine Rivers

An Echo in the Darkness is a continuation of the biblical principles from book one. One of the main things that drives the story is the transformation that Hadassah, Marcus and Julia must face both in the physical realm but also in spiritual realm. Their past transgressions bond them to their inner selves while not allowing them to be truly free.
