Ancient Egypt Dkfindout Protected from invaders by deserts, and fed by fertile farmland on the banks of the Nile, the Egyptian civilization survived for thousands of years with few major changes. The Ancient Egyptians left behind many clues about their way of life, from giant temples and pyramids to statues, paintings, mummies, and picture writing called hieroglyphics. Ancient Egypt was the most stable civilization in human history, lasting for more than 3,000 years.

Ancient Egyptians Quiz | Quiz About Egypt | DK Find Out Toggle text. Ancient Egypt was ruled by the pharaohs, powerful kings and queens who were worshipped as gods on earth. The pharaohs were rich and powerful, but they had many responsibilities. They led Egypt’s armies into battle, and they were also thought to control the flooding of the River Nile, which was essential for growing the kingdom’s food. If disaster or famine struck, the pharaoh had to beg the other gods for assistance, and might be blamed by the people if the situation did not ...
