Protected from invaders by deserts, and fed by fertile farmland on the banks of the Nile, the Egyptian civilization survived for thousands of years with few major changes. The Ancient Egyptians left behind many clues about their way of life, from giant temples and pyramids to statues, paintings, mummies, and picture writing called hieroglyphics. Ancient Egypt was the most stable civilization in human history, lasting for more than 3,000 years.

Life On The Nile | Nile Egypt | DK Find Out
The River Nile was the main highway of Ancient Egypt. Boats were used to carry everything from grain and cattle to coffins and building blocks. The earliest boats were moved using oars, and were made from bundles of papyrus reeds tied tightly together. By 3000 BCE, the Egyptians were using boats made of wood, with sails to move them around.
