Anils Ghost Michael Ondaatje

'anil's ghost' - a fictionalized story about the atrocities of the civil war that sri lanka went through, where ondatje paints the brutality of sufferings using his picturesque words, a part of history that was lost even before it was ever found. i struggled with the writing, it was fragmented, characters too distant, the story - chaotic, dislocated. but isn't this what civil war does? this book was written in 2000 while sri lanka was still in the midst of the civil war, an attempt to seek refu

But Michael Ondaatje (who was also born in Sri Lanka) is a poet, and he uses this narrative mainly as the armature for a meditation on the many ways the past can haunt the present. Several time-frames are at work simultaneously. Anil herself is in the immediate aftermath of a breakup from a lover in America only weeks before; there is a mystery ...
