J.G. Hava (Author of Arabic English Dictionary)

Hava is the only complete Arabic-English dictionary for classical Arabic and is a must have for students working with pre-modern Arabic texts. It is an excellent dictionary, complete, easy to use, accurate - and unlike Lane, does not give you more information that you can handle. Unfortunately, this edition was sloppily printed.

Arabic-English Dictionary for the Use of Students: J G ...

The dictionary of JG Hava is for classical arabic only, so "car" is not in there, and "hatif" is translated as "Unseen man whose voice is heard" instead of "telephone" in MWA. But it is very comprehensive for the study of classical texts, there's lots and lots of words, for instance: "To walk with a.o. each on the opposite bank of a river"
