About the Book - Misuzu Kaneko

Such is the case for Taisho era poet Misuzu Kaneko (1903–1930), whose poetry is the subject of a new children's book called Are You An Echo? This is also the title of one of Kaneko's poems, which took on extra meaning for survivors of the 2011 Japanese earthquake and tsunami.

Are You An Echo? The Poems of Misuzu Kaneko: Review

Are You an Echo? The Lost Poetry of Misuzu Kaneko written and translated by David Jacobson, Sally Ito and Michiko Tsuboi, illustrated by Toshikado Hajiri is one of these very special books which disguises depth, breadth and richness in its short pages. It is bold and tender, thoughtful and thought-provoking, handsome and restorative.
