Every state possesses the means to keep its citizens under strict control. The democratic trick is to ensure that it receives no encouragement to use them. If governments are incited to believe the worst of their citizens, then those citizens will not be slow to live up to their masters' expectations. Be careful what you wish for.

We should be careful what we wish for so that we can set our expectations of God correctly. When our expectations of God are set correctly, we are less likely to lose faith because we feel wronged or slighted by God. We are careful what we wish for when we always include the phrase, but your will be done, and not ours.
