Since taking birch bark off the tree can damage the tree, I used birch scrapbook paper to get the same look without being a tree killer. And thus, these faux birch candleholders were born from thrift store glassware with just a roll in paper, piece of tape, and dash of gold! A more simple rustic Christmas craft you will not find. ?

How to Care for a Paper Birch Tree. Paper birches transplant easily with little shock. Plant them in a location with full sun and moist but well-drained soil. The trees adapt to most types of soil as long as it is cool in summer. It prefers long winters and mild summers. Paper birches are susceptible to a number of insects, including the destructive bronze birch borers. If you live in an area where these insects are a problem, try planting a resistant cultivar such as 'Snowy.'

The birch scrapbook paper was found at a local craft store. First I laid down my glass on the paper and measured so that I had a long strip that would wrap around the entire glass, with a slight overlap at the meeting edge. Using Modge Podge, I painted a section, stuck on the paper and then worked around the glass until it was completely adhered.
