Reader Steve Lamont has provided some enlightenment. It turns out that Apple and Swift did indeed buy the domains – you can tell by using a “whois” service. “Neither of these domains has any IP addresses assigned to them, however, so that’s why you can’t find them on the internet.” So the “get.sucks” hush money model works.

You question your intention before listening or telling your stories. If you feel that this friend is going to listen to you with detachment and help you look inside, then tell. If this person can make you feel like the world is a terrible place or you are a loser, then don't! At the end of the day YOU but only YOU can take charge of any situation.

The Danger of Talking About Your Problems

Interviewers will sometimes start an interview with an open-ended question like,
