Since the first BeSafe car seat, we have continuously innovated and gone beyond what the regulations require, challenging safety standards and establishing new norms. We set new standards in the industry when we launched one of the first rear-facing seats in 1989 and we continue to drive the importance of rear-facing travel.

Plus Tested is a Swedish standard, not an EU Regulation, and it is therefore not mandatory. It was created in 2009 at the VTI Crash Lab in Linköping to ensure that child car seats manage high forces against the neck in the event of a collision. The two types of seats tested are 18kg ISOFIX seats or... 25kg belted seats. This supplementary test ...
