Lacey stood in front of the huge wooden door wondering where the hell the doorbell was. It was one of those ultra-modern homes where all the essentials like light switches and the damn handle to flush the toilet were hidden. She'd been in a home like that in New York – some unnecessary party she and the rest of the cast had been invited to. Needless to say, that particular toilet went ...

Elle Spencer is the author of Forget Her Not and Casting Lacey. She is a hopeless romantic and firm believer in true love, although she knows the path to happily ever after is rarely an easy one–not for Elle and not for her characters. Before jumping off a cliff to write full time, Elle ran an online store and worked as a massage therapist. Her wife is especially grateful for the second one ...
