Chapter 8 – Principles of Contract Law. Contract law deals with the formation and keeping of promises. Although aspects of contract law vary from state to state, much of it is based on the common law. In 1932, the American Law Institute compiled the Restatement of the Law of Contracts. This work is a nonstatutory, authoritative exposition of the present law on the subject of contracts and is presently in its second edition.

Abstract. This is a revised edition of the paperback Essays on Contract, which was published by OUP in 1988. With the addition of a previously unpublished chapter, this chapter is an up-to-date and comprehensive account of the views on the law and theory of contract. The new essay, ‘Freedom of Contract and the New Right’, charts the latest shift in the development of contract law, this time back in the direction of Freedom of Contract.
