The Time Management Matrix, Diagram. In Quadrant 1 (top left) we have important, urgent items - items that need to be dealt with immediately. In Quadrant 2 (top right) we have important, but not urgent items - items that are important but do not require your immediate attention, and need to be planned for. This quadrant is highlighted because Covey emphasizes this is the quadrant that we should focus on for long term achievement of goals.

Time Management Matrix by Stephen Covey - Urgent vs Important
Covey’s Matrix works by allocating work into one of four quadrants on a 2x2 grid to identify its importance and its urgency (see image below). Each quadrant in the matrix can change in size but the overall size of the matrix represents the set number of hours in a given working day, week or month and therefore cannot change.
