find yourself in the same sort of situation.

The Best Drawing Exercises For The ... - Freehand Architecture
So not directly designing (architecture) but rather simple exercises that are pre-design stage. Like in mine school we had to first do a composition with different letters on 30x30cm cardboard or doing a simple (without function) model of a space 30x30x30 cm with walls inside but treat it rather like a composition not a functional space or actual project.
