I tried saving to my downloads folder, but had same issues even when I moved the file from downloads folder to final location and manually changed the name of the file. SOLUTION: save the file directly from the email to the desktop. Then move that file to where I wanted to store it on my computer and manually change the name. uth Rendell

On May 24, 2018, the FBI released 21 files they had on known human trafficker Jeffrey Epstein. The files are heavily redacted in areas, with some files being completely redacted and appear to cover the FBI probe into his role in trafficking children. With the files being heavily redacted, there is nothing that as exciting as one might hope.
