Four Views On Hell digs deep into the fiery core of the following four perspectives: 1) Eternal conscious torment (the belief in a literal or metaphorical torment/separation from God that lasts forever) 2) Annihilationism (the belief that to go to Hell means to cease to exist) 3) Christian Universalism (the belief that all will eventually be saved from Hell through Christ) 4) Purgatory (the belief that God will sanctify believers in an anteroom to Heaven to prepare them for it) The format of ...

"Four Views on Hell: Second Edition". I'll have to pause my current blog series because Four Views on Hell: Second Edition has arrived! This is the latest book in Zondervan's 1 Counterpoints "a series that allows 3-5 prominent scholars to each present their view on an important biblical and theological issue, and then respond to each of the others.

4 Views on Hell provides an informative and interesting overview of several views on the matter. The book is broken down as follows:
1. The late John F. Walvoord defends a traditional literal and eternal view of hell. While I disagree with Walvoord's famous dispensationalist rapture position, his defense of Hell musters considerable scriptural support.
