At the core of Gouin's method was something called a Gouin Series: a set of statements that described a single event or process. The following is a segment of his "I open the door" series: I walk to the door, I stretch out my arm, I grab the doorknob, I turn the doorknob, the door turns on its hinges, the door opens, I let go of the doorknob.

The Gouin Series is a direct method of teaching a foreign language developed by Francois Gouin in the nineteenth century. It's not the only way to teach a language, but it is our favorite way! While many language teachers use the Gouin Series (GS) frequently and with great success, others either haven't heard of it or haven't given it
