When people are coming together for ministry meetings, pastoral council meeting or any gatherings in the parish, it is good to take 15-20 minutes at the beginning of the meeting to do this Gospel Reflection Process. When done properly it gets people talking to each other on a deeper human and spiritual level.

Stewardship is something we hear about often, and most of the time, it is thought of in terms of finances. Obviously, it is important to be a faithful steward with everything God has given us, including finances. But that isn't what this verse is referring to!

Light Reflection Daily Devotional Readings

This gospel is not about some unknown time in the future. This gospel is about each of us and how we follow Jesus here and now. The amazing thing is that on this Feast of Christ our King, both the first reading and the gospel speak about others who need our help and support. Whatever we do to and for each other, we do to and for Jesus.

Gospel Reflection for the Feast of Christ our King ...

Reflections in Year A John's aim in these talks is to provide background for people who wish to reflect on the Sunday Gospels in the light of their own personal experience and to apply them to their lives. He examines each text, seeking to explain details that may not be familiar, and trying to determine the particular nuances of Jesus' message that the author of the gospel wished to emphasise.
