Tell us about “Hal and the End Street.” Hal and the End Street is about a 13yr old boy called Hal, and Hal has autism. Hal lives on End Street with his Mum, his older sister Ann, his older brother Bertie and his dog Jenny. The book is set in 1974, a period when autism was being diagnosed, but was not very well known or understood. Hal copes with different scenarios in the book and at the end of each chapter there is the option for the reader to choose the ending.

Trapped On A Dead End Street.
But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots
of Pharaoh, and his horsemen,
and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal-zephon.
And when Pharaoh drew nigh the children of Israel lifted up their

The street is located on the east end of town, off Lakeshore Drive just past the Elks Lodge on Clark Street. City Administrator Steve Diers said that the name discrepancy came up during the census. "It should be 'boulevard,' but at some point it started showing up as 'drive' in various places," Diers said.
