White plastic headlight as fitted to Australian metal-tanked OE models. An improvement on the UK version as they have a glass light lens and run a halogen bulb. The same headlight unit as fitted to many Australian XT225 machines. The Polisport headlights are a good match for the TTR - here is a pic of one fitted:

Adding a headlight to the ttr is possible and works well. I took my wife's 2001 125L, and installed a stator from a 2007 125-LE model so I could utilize the power generated to charge thw battery as a lighting coil. According to Baja Designs website the stock electric start stator puts out 70 watts ac and 20 watts DC (for charging the battery).
