The '5' refers to the five main speakers: two positioned behind you to the right and left, and three front speakers, which go left, right and centre of the TV. The '1' indicates the number of subwoofers. Although 5.1 is the most common setup, systems can be as compact as 2.1 and as expansive as 9.2. You can also buy surround sound systems with an amplifier unit (or 'receiver'), though not a Blu-ray or DVD player, but it's the full package that is usually termed a 'home cinema system'.
