In the Footsteps of Alexander the Great - Wikipedia
Tracking Alexander the Great's footsteps from Macedonia through into Iran, Afghanistan and India. It is quite simply outstanding and remains the best history programme I have ever seen. It shows countries that the 'West' can no longer visit as many have sadly descended into violence and war after 9/11, the 'Arab Spring' and beyond.

Michael Wood makes his way through war-torn Afghanistan on a dramatic march with pack horses over the Hindu Kush Mountains. At Kabul, Michael finds himself in the middle of a siege of the city by the fundamentalist Taliban. Hiring horses for the camera equipment and armed guards to ward off ambushes, he sets off to follow Alexander's trail, 20,000ft up in the Hindu Kush Mountains, to make it ...
