John Tcg Annie Baker

Annie Baker is a brilliant playwright - pacey dialogue, some really funny moments, and this weird sense of unease through the whole thing. Can't wait to see it performed.

"Annie Baker's John is so good on so many levels that it casts a unique and brilliant light . . . By not rushing things by letting the characters develop as gradually and inevitably as rain or snowfall Baker returns us to the naturalistic but soulful theatre that many of her contemporaries and near-contemporaries have disavowed in their rush to be "postmodern." The New Yorker"John, like any ...

Thousands of inanimate objects, watching. A simple enough description, but Annie Baker's fascinating play takes a look at what theatre can be and builds a world all its own. Baker's hyper-realism bleeds into the eerily supernatural in this quiet tale, where actors and audiences alike delve into ideas of self, mortality, and the solitu
