kaputt | translate German to English: Cambridge Dictionary

Kaputt is a book of opposites: high society and cabals of murderers, rude naturalism and celestial ideals, filthy squalor and divine art, brutal cruelty and abstract humanism – all these become interconnected and interchangeable. The narration is sanguinarily metaphoric and tenebrously imaginative: Twisted tree roots broke through the crystal sheet like frozen serpents, – it seemed as if ...

"Kaputt" is Bejar seemingly at his mellowest, drifting through a world shrouded in synthetic keyboard fog and saxophones. But surfaces can be deceiving. Reference points include the carefully manicured work of Donald Fagen, Bryan Ferry and Talk Talk, and Blue Nile's 1989 album, "Hats," a clinic in how to extract warmth, color and humanity from ...
