Lenny Henry in Othello (BBC Audio) Audio CD - Unabridged ...

Lenny Henry's performance is pretty solid - let's face it, from 0 to Othello in one step is a big, big ask - and he successfully casts off much of the baggage from his iconic comedy background. He chooses quite an exotic Othello, which I think is a good choice, amongst the pronounced Yorkshire/Lancashire accents of the rest of the cast.

Instead much is made of the lead role being taken by British stand up comedian and Shakespeare novice, Lenny Henry. And there's another plus point to this over the Radio Plays series - these guys have worked this production on stage and so there is a much more realistic and natural feel to the performance.
