The Medieval

Period in Indian

history is difficult to clearly define. It may be perceived

as the long phase

of India's transition from the ancient to the immediately

precolonial times

(which some

historians regard

as India's early modern age). The latter period would naturally be imagined commencing from Vasco da Gama's voyage around the Cape of Good Hope in 1498, or, alternatively, the establishment of the Mughal Empire (1526).
