MY LIFE IN HOUSES was in the parcel. Margaret Forster has written a memoir based not on the big outward facing events of her life but her homes. Starting with a neat house on a large new council estate built to replace the overcrowded slums of Carlisle, we follow her as she grows up and moves away from the North.

About Mitch - Mitch Stephen, author of the book My Life ...

In My Life & 1000 Houses you can expect to see how someone went from buying his first house, to building his own "empire" of passive income and ultimately achieved financial freedom. I love this quote from the book that says, "Financial freedom happens when your wants exceed your needs".
