Tips for News Writing . Generally speaking, the lede, or introduction to the story, should be a single sentence of 35 to 45 words that summarizes the main points of the story, not a seven-sentence monstrosity that looks like it's out of a Jane Austen novel.; The lede should summarize the story from start to finish. So if you're writing about a fire that destroyed a building and left 18 people ...

Good, clean news-writing is important, but all the writing skills in the world can't replace thorough, solid reporting. Good reporting means answering all the questions a reader might have and then some. It also means double-checking the information you get to make sure it's accurate. And don't forget to check the spelling of your source's name.

Reporting & Editing

News writing follows a basic formula. While styles can diverge more dramatically depending on the kind of story—a feature story may look and sound very different than a hard news story—all news stories are cut from the same mold. The first element of news writing is, of course, to deliver the news.
