Pretty typical Nora Roberts Irish trilogy filled with sacrifice, big evil, magic, friendship, and love. Even if the individual plots for Shadow Spell and Dark Witch, and the overall plot for the whole trilogy, really, strikes me as a bit cookie cutter, I don't think Ms. Roberts can write a book that isn't entertaining. One thing, though.

What did you love best about Shadow Spell? I enjoyed the story overall, but have to agree with other reviewers that it was a predictable storyline. I've read a lot of Nora Roberts, and truley enjoy her writing, but it does seem that the plots are along the same lines especially when it comes to her trilogies.
