As of 2017, Oregon had a 3.4% unemployment rate and the average salary there was right around $45,000. While the average salary is doable when rent sits around that $1,100 mark, things might get a little tight if you move to the state ' s largest city, Portland, where rent is $1,500. Fortunately, Portland ' s average salary sits around $55,000 which gives you a little more breathing room.

Oregon - Wikitravel

Unlike the 49er's, who were mainly men, the pioneers of the Oregon Trail traveled in family groups, including many women and children. Though many emigrants used mules like those shown in the pictures, records suggest that many more relied on oxen to pull their wagons across the plains. Emigrants typically took along herds of cattle to stock the farms they dreamed of starting in the Oregon ...
