Roasted Pumpkin Soup with Melting Cheese The lovely thing about pumpkin is that it has a really velvety texture in soup, and if it's oven-roasted before you add it to the soup, it gives an unusual nuttiness to the flavour. Just before serving, add little cubes of quick melting cheese like Gruyere or, if you're lucky enough to get it,

This recipe for pumpkin soup is the best I've ever made. The only change was that I made the kale crunchy instead of wilting it. It gave the soup, I thought it needed a different texture to it and it turned out beautifully! Fried garlic and sesame seeds apart and kale apart. This was the smoothest, creamiest, most delicious pumpkin soup I ...

Simple Pumpkin Soup | Minimalist Baker Recipes

The soup itself is very simple - you need little more than pumpkin (or other winter squash), onion, oil or butter, water and of course, the curry powder, which itself isn't spicy so if you'd like a bit more heat in your pumpkin soup, feel free to add some cayenne or a chopped red chilli.
