[PDF] Recipes Of The Jaffna Tamils Full Download-BOOK One of the main dishes available in Jaffna is string hoppers or putumayam. While Malaysians enjoy the dish with brown sugar and grated coconut, Sri Lankans eat it with sothi (gravy made of coconut milk, lemongrass, garlic, shallots and curry leaves) and sambol. Sambol in Jaffna is very important.

Thick pressed coconut milk or canned coconut milk works perfectly fine for this recipe. Let the curry simmer briefly for a couple of minutes. Switch off the flame and add in the lime juice is optional. The little acidity nicely balances the richness of coconut milk and spices. A simple Jaffna style prawn curry is ready to be served.
