Replenish is a must-read for everyone serving in ministry. Lance not only challenges the reader to lead from a spiritually healthy place but also gives tangible steps to cultivating the healthy soul we all long for. I found myself reading through the chapters slowly, allowing the words to both minister to and challenge me.

The bridge between a healthy leader and a healthy ministry is a healthy team. At the end of each chapter are a few questions for reflection and discussion. These could be used in conversation with a trusted friend or in discussion with your team. It's my hope that these pages will spark honest, helpful, and hopeful "soul conversations."
