Dr. R. C. Sproul writes in his commentary Romans that " not everyone in the church is called to be a missionary, but every member of the church is responsible to make sure that the missionary activity gets done. " The Great Commission is not for a select few; rather, it is given to the whole church. Some of us will go to the ends of the earth.

Romans 1:1. The celebrity mentality that pervades our culture often causes many believers to wish they had polished, talented communicators as their preachers. But this is not how we should evaluate our ministers, and we should be grateful that we have pastors who accurately and faithfully preach God ' s Word even if they are not all equally gifted.

Romans 14:1. John Calvin comments, " They who are strong should spend their labor in assisting the weak, and that they who have made the greatest advances should bear with the more ignorant. For God, by making us stronger than others, does not bestow strength that we may oppress the weak. " . As a general rule, mature Christians are to be extraordinarily patient with immature believers, putting up with their misunderstandings and other growing pains as they aim for maturity in the Lord.
