(Slavery's role in economic progress, much disputed by historians, is secondary to Davis--but his findings bear on the issues.) In his first section, "'How 'Progress' Led to European Enslavement of Africans,'" Davis traces the expansion of slavery in company with commercial and imperial expansion--from the Muslims, to the Mediterranean peoples, to the 17th-and 18th-century mercantile powers.

This report highlights Commonwealth government action and inaction to tackle contemporary forms of slavery. In 2018, Commonwealth governments committed to achieve Sustainable Development Goal Target 8.7. Two years on, this report finds that progress has been slow and concrete action is urgently needed to achieve this target by 2030.
