Introduction. This suggested Star Trek viewing order is probably best for someone already somewhat familiar with the basics of Star Trek, who wants to watch the entire franchise in roughly the order the episodes are intended to take place. The goal is NOT to be rigid about this - some episodes are moved around the timeline to enhance the story-watching experience - but generally this guide will take you from the 21st Century right through to the 32nd.

The Definitive Chronological Viewing Order For The Star Trek Cinematic Universe. Marvel might get credit for pioneering their transmedia "Cinematic Universe," but truly, Star Trek in the 90's was way ahead of the game. In the span of that decade, the Star Trek universe saw the release of four feature films and three TV shows that all shared some degree of interconnected continuity, over a decade before the world realized that this was the future of entertainment.
