Since I discovered this series just under three years ago, the latest Demon Accords novel is always on my must-read on the day of release list. Summer Reign was no different. As always it is really good to jump back into this world, and I was really pleased that Declan was taking the lead on this one again.

Plot wise, Summer Reign is a return to Declan's story following the events of Winterfall. Now he's a teacher at Arcane, the Lord of the Middle Realm, and has a few new tricks up his sleeve. Like all of Conroe's books, the story is well-told and action-packed, and by this point of the series, you should know what to expect.
