Tell No One Chapter 8. Shauna and Linda rent a three-bedroom apartment on Riverside Drive and 116 Street, not far from Columbia University. I'd managed to find a spot within a block, an act that usually accompanies a parting sea or stone tablet. Shauna buzzed me up. Linda was still out at her formal.

Tell No One - Chapter 8 | novels80.com

That said, "Tell No One" didn't particularly do it for me. It's a fast enough page turner, but the plot is one of those over-egged stories which start with an interesting enough premise and then spiral out of control with unbelievable backstories and plotlines that are both a little hard to follow and more than a little unlikely.
