Book Review – The Carhullan Army by Sarah Hall | Vishy ’ s Blog. Feminist and environmentalist themes about. She wanted to be free; I think she ended up in a more horrible environment. She tells of running away, trying to find a group she ’ d known about in the past, where she hopes she can find a more humane place to live.

THE CARHULLAN ARMY SYNOPSIS - falegnameriasenape.com

While it ’ s certainly true that The Carhullan Army is far from a realistic exploration of the effects of climate change or the possible shape of a Western totalitarian nation, it is equally true that this is far from Hall ’ s focus. The crux the novel is the process by which Sister shakes off the helplessness and internalized victimhood that have been drilled into her and becomes an instrument of Jackie Nixon ’ s will.
