The answer comes easily -- it's a happy story, one they both love to tell. But there is a second part to this story, the answer to a question their friends never ask: what happened next? Rabih and Kirsten find each other, fall in love, get married. Society tells us this is the end of the story. In fact, it is only the beginning.

The Course of Love is a novel that explores not so much the start of love, as its maintenance over time; the way our ideals bend and reform under the pressures of an average existence, and the magnificent, sometimes frightening, developments we can make as we slowly realise that love is in essence a skill we need to learn rather than an enthusiasm we simply experience.

The Course of Love - Alain de Botton

A COURSE OF LOVE is, in its own words, a continuation of A Course in Miracles. As with A Course in Miracles thirty years earlier, it was received unexpectedly, telepathically and from the same source. It builds upon the same profound thought system, yet in a language both accessible and eloquent. A COURSE OF LOVE is a course for the heart.
