The Ghost The Secret Life

James Angleton's real life is the most intriguing, moving, and at times shocking spy story in American history. In The Ghost, Jeff Morley has captured the man in all his brilliant and sometimes delusional eccentricity. Angleton is woven through many of the strangest episodes of the 1950s and 60s--including the Kennedy assassination--in what was invisible thread, until Morley's book.

The Ghost | Jefferson Morley | Macmillan

The man whom Morley calls "the ghost", led a life which did not give away secrets and prevented even the most prying eyes from gaining too much insight. It may have been by design or just an extension of the counterintelligence legend's way of operating. To say that Angleton's life was incredible would be a severe understatement.
