When it comes to researching the Greek Magical Papyri, although Hans Dieter Betz's version is the de facto translation of what's available into English, Karl Preisendanz's version is legendary, and in many cases forms a "critical edition" for the Greek along with his German translation. The original version of the texts were put out in the late 1920s and early 1930s, and as such, are out of copyright and considered works in the public domain.
