Galdone, is a story about four animals (Hen, Cat, Dog, and Mouse) living together in a cozy little house. Cat, Dog, and Mouse like to spend their days being lazy and sleeping, which causes Hen to do all of the work around the home. While gardening, Hen asks which of her

The Little Red Hen Big Book by Paul Galdone

This folk tale, passed down through the generations, tells the story of the little red hen that works hard for her bread. At each stage of the bread making, from planting to baking, she asks for help from the other farm animals. But when no one offers to help, the little red hen does the work herself. Of course, after the bread is baked, all of the farm animals offer to help the little red hen eat the bread;

Little Red Hen is a time-tested cautionary tale about how we reap what we sow. When the hen asks a cat, dog, and mouse for help planting some wheat, she gets no takers: "Not I!" said the cat. "Not I!" said the dog. "Not I!" said the mouse." They won't water, cut, or grind the wheat . . . or help bake a cake with it, either.

The Little Red Hen — Hubbard's Cupboard

Spring is here and we recently Learned About Plants and have been working in our garden at home so I thought it would be fun for the kids to do some activities based on The Little Red Hen. (The kid's and I love Book Themed Activities!)We planted some grain, made some bread, and did some fun free printable activities. The printables work on sequencing, counting, pre-writing, visual ...
