The True Believer: Thoughts on the Nature of Mass Movements by Eric Hoffer is a political philosophy classic from 1951. It has lost absolutely nothing to age. In Walden Henry David Thoreau wrote, "The mass of men lead lives of quiet desperation." This could easily be seen as Hoffer's starting point.

The True Believer sees himself as one of 'the chosen.' Self-denial and group membership confers the right on them to be harsh upon others, and by which to be rid of personal responsibility. Violence is not the product of leadership, but of a unification of the whole.
