Utterly unaware of the thousands of cleverly hidden cameras watching his every move, for nearly three decades, Truman's entire existence pivots around the will and the wild imagination of the ruthlessly manipulative television producer, Christof--the all-powerful TV-God of an extreme 24/7 reality show: The Truman Show. As a result, Truman's picturesque neighbourhood with the manicured lawns and the uncannily perfect residents is nothing but an elaborate state-of-the-art set, and the only ...

The Truman Show fan points out incredible hidden details ...

The script starts off with Truman at the mirror however the film begins with a montage of fictional interviews that instantly confirm that Truman's world is a TV show. The script makes it more subtle through the use of obvious product placement that Meryl gives to Truman which simply implies that something is not right with the world. Page 2:
