This distancing diminishing the emotional impact of the dangers in a way that suits the stiff-upper-l. A gentleman tiger takes his son on sailing voyage which encounters unexpected hazards in this Richard Adams poem beautifully illustrated by Nicola Bayley. Set in the Edwardian era, period feel is delicately captured by both narration and illustration.

The Tyger Voyage by Richard Adams - Goodreads

A gentleman tyger and his son set sail on a boat into the unknown. Together they roam across the seas, through jungles, past ice-covered mountains and erupting volcanoes to be rescued at last by a troupe of gypsies. Eventually they return in triumph to Victorian England with many an extraordinary tale to tell.
