The story of a vampire during the crusades was a very interesting idea to me. The whole story takes place in a time of religious furor, when the daily realities of death by known causes, such as violence, and unknown causes, such as disease, were explained in mixed terms of both Pagan and Christian religions.

Mesmerising, darkly erotic, terrifying, The Vampire Armand is an historic instalment to Anne Rice's internationally best-selling Vampire Chronicles. Magnificent and electrifying, The Vampire Armand tells the tale of the mesmerising leader of the vampire coven the Theatre des Vampires in Paris. This angel-faced killer was snatched from the steppes of Russia as a child and sold as a slave in Renaissance Venice.
